The defendant shall refrain from the illegal possession and/or use of drugs and shall submit to urinalysis or other forms of testing to ensure compliance. It is further ordered that the defendant shall submit to drug treatment, on an outpatient or inpatient basis, as directed by the U.S. Probation Office. The defendant shall abide by the rules of any program and shall remain in treatment until satisfactorily discharged with the approval of the U.S. Probation Office.

CAUSE

While in the custody, Kushner applied for and was granted admission into a residential drug abuse treatment program in the Federal Bureau of Prisons. Based upon the offender's statements and recognized assessment tools, it has been determined that Kushner is dependant upon alcohol and other drugs (sedatives). A goal of treatment is to develop the offender's cognitive, behavioral, social, vocational, and other skills to solve the his substance abuse and other related problems.

The addition of special alcohol and drug conditions to the current Court order will enable the U.S. Probation Office to better serve the offender. It will allow Probation to establish substance abuse aftercare in a community-based program which will address relapse prevention and reduce the likelihood of recidivism. Kushner has signed Probation Form 49 (Waiver of Hearing to Modify Supervision Conditions).

Respectfully submitted,
